Re: May Monthly Report (4/1/99 - 4/30/99)

Dear Mr. Dodson:

This is in reply to your letter dated January 12, 2000, regarding the above referenced monthly report, specifically the contribution listed for Senator Trent Lott in the amount of $5,000.

A review of our records determined that part of this contribution should be redesignated. Attached is a copy of our correspondence to Senator Lott redesignating $1,000.00 of the April 1999 contribution to his general election. This redesignation will be reported with the February 2000 (1/1/00 - 1/31/00) Monthly Report.

Thank you for the assistance you have provided my office and please accept our apologies for this oversight.

Sincerely,

Jerry Willburn
International Secretary-Treasurer

The Honorable Trent Lott
United States Senator
P.O. Box 22824
Jackson MS 39225

Dear Senator Lott:

According to the Federal Election Commission contributions from the International Brotherhood of Boilermakers were made to your Primary campaign in September 1995 for $1,000 and again in April of 1999 $5,000 was also designated to your primary campaign, this exceeds the limitations provided by the FEC.

Therefore in order to correct the oversight I am hereby designating $4000 of the April 99 contribution to your primary election and $1000 to you general election. Please adjust your records accordingly.

Respectfully,

Ande M. Abbott
Assistant to the International President
